Please provide narrative, descriptive answers to the questions below.

Describe the kind of manager you want to be. What actions will you take and what will you think? How does it look, sound and feel when you are that manager?

What do you already do that fits that vision?

What, if anything, are you doing that doesn't fit with who you really want to be?

What is your plan for bringing your behavior and thinking more in line with the manager you want to be?
